Ch-1 A Letter to God

* Answer the following :

Q1) Who does Lencho have complete faith in? Which sentences in the story tell you this?

A) Lencho has complete faith in God. The sentences that show you this are: "But in the hearts of all who lived in the middle of the valley, there was a single hope", "All through the night, Lencho thought only of his one hope: the help of God, whose eyes, as he had been instructed, see everything, even what is deep in one's conscience". "God", he wrote, "If you don't help me, my family and I will go hungry this year". "He wrote 'To God' on the envelope, put the letter inside and, still troubled, went to town". "God could not have made a mistake, nor could he have denied Lencho what he had requested". "It said: God: of the money that I asked for, only seventy pesos reached me. Send me the rest, since I need it very much".

Q2) What did Lencho hope for?

A) Lencho hoped for rains as the only thing that his field of ripe corn needed was a shower.

Q3) Why did Lencho say the raindrops were like 'new coins'?

A) Lencho's crops were ready for harvest. As raindrops would have helped in getting a better harvest, resulting in more prosperity, so Lencho compared them with new coins.

Q4) How did the rain change? What happened to Lencho's fields?

A) The rain was pouring water. But suddenly, a strong wind began to blow and very large hailstones began to fall along with the rain. All the crop in Lencho's fields destroyed.

Q5) What were Lencho's feelings when the hail stopped?

A) After hail stopped, Lencho's soul was filled with sadness. He could see a bleak future for him and his family. He was worried about lack of food for the coming year.

Q6) Who or what did Lencho have faith in? What did he do?

A) Lencho had complete faith in God. He believed that God's eyes see everything, even what is deep in one's conscience. He wrote a letter to God saying that he needed a hundred pesos to sow his field again.

Q7) Who read the letter?

A) Postmaster read the letter.

Q8) What did the postmaster do then?

A) The postmaster first laughed. But then he became serious. He was deeply moved by the writer's faith in God. He did not want to shake his faith. So he decided to collect the money and send it to Lencho.

Q9) Was Lencho surprised to find a letter for him with money in it?

A) No. Lencho was not at all surprised to see the letter from God with money inside it. His confidence and faith in God was such that he had expected that reply from God.

Q10) What made Lencho angry?

A) When he finished counting money he found only seventy pesos. But he demanded hundred pesos. He was confident that God could neither make a mistake nor deny him what he had requested. Therefore, he concluded that the post office employees must have taken the remaining thirty pesos.

Q11) Why does the postmaster send money to Lencho? Why does he sign the letter 'God'?

A) Postmaster was moved by Lencho's complete faith in the God. So, he decided to send money to Lencho. Moreover, the postmaster did not want to shake Lencho's faith in God. So, he signed the letter 'God'. It was a good ploy to convey a message that God had himself written the letter.

Q12) Did Lencho try to find out who had sent the money to him? Why/why not?

A) No, Lencho does not try to find out who had sent money to him. This is because he had great confidence in God and never suspected that it could be someone else other than God who would send him the money. His faith in God was so strong that he believed that God had sent him the money.

Q13) Who does Lencho think has taken the rest of the money?
What is the irony in the situation?

A) Lencho thinks that the post office people have taken the money. It is the post office people who send the money to Lencho. But, on the other hand, Lencho thinks they have stolen his money. He calls them crooks. Thus there is an element of irony in this situation.
